Logan, Lancaster, Ky., was to mercilessly slaughter his high-grade $30,000.00 stock of New SEASONABLE CLOTHING, SHOES, FURNISHING GOODS and HATS for Men, Women and Children was incentive enough to bring the people for miles around.

Stupendous Beyond Conception.

They came, went and came again each time more eager than the first to buy High-Grade Merchandise at less than cost of production.

An Unprecedented Event. We had to Lock Our Doors.

So great was the rush of eager bargain hunters.

MATRIMONIAL.

J. H. Smith, a widower, and Mrs. Cordia Richards were married at the home of the bride on the 2nd.

W. V. Wilkinson, telegraph operator at Heidelberg, on the L. & A. Railroad, and Miss Addie Johnson, a well-known lady teacher of Madison county, were married in Lexington.

Mr. James Hatcher, of Lancaster, proprietor of the Danville and Lancaster stage line, and Miss Bessie Pollard, of Hedgeville, were married Wednesday afternoon at Lancaster. The groom is the son of the late Capt. Hatcher, who formerly lived in Stanford.

Mr. A. M. Eads, a prominent young Boyle county farmer, and Miss Myrtle Acey, the pretty daughter of Mr. J. W. Acey, of this place, were united in marriage at the bride's home on East Main at 9 A. M. Sunday, Dr. W. F. Vaughan officiating. The bride was beautifully gowned and her natural beauty showed to its best advantage. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Eads left for a visit to relatives in Tennessee and Indiana and will be gone for some time.

No Opium in Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

There is not the least danger in giving Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to small children as it contains no opium or other harmful drug. It has an established reputation of more than 30 years as the most successful medicine in use for colds, croup and whooping cough. It always cures and is pleasant to take. Children like it. Sold by Stanford Drug Co.

The Somerset Journal now appears with "F. J. Campbell, editor and proprietor," at its mast head, and we congratulate the clever editor that he now reads his title clear to one of the best papers in the State. His hard work of the last five years has been gratifyingly rewarded and he and his friends have the satisfaction of seeing "lessee" disappear from the columns. Here's to him.

New Cure for Epilepsy.

J. B. Waterman, of Watertown, O., Rural free delivery, writes: "My daughter, afflicted for several years with epilepsy, was cured by Dr. King's New Life Pills. She has not had an attack for over two years." Best body cleansers and life giving tonic pills on earth. 25c at Penny's Drug Store and Lyne Bros.

Chas. Stewart died at Dugger, Ind., from the effects of a blow inflicted by Frank Launders. Stewart is the third victim within a week of murderous assault in that vicinity.

KIDDS' STORE.

Our tobacco men are in the midst of stripping and find the crop in much better shape than apprehended.

Quail and rabbits are plentiful and hunters are regulated by light. The shooting is from dawn till dusk.

John Lynn's address three-fourths of the day is the feeding pen, where the finest, fattest lot of cattle in this end awaits date of delivery. An anxious inquiry of many a citizen is: "Who has a few fat hogs to sell?"

Dr. James P. Riffe and family, of Erlanger, are with relatives here. Mrs. Jessie Staggs and daughter, Miss Elizabeth, sampled Thanksgiving turkey and trimmings with West End friends. Miss Nan Newland dispensed a shower of sunshine in the Kidd's Store vicinity last week. John Riffe is seriously debating a removal West to garner some of the property afloat, where land values are not yet fabulous. Every case of ophthalmia along our pike was cured last Friday by sight of John Wilkerson, long time our Jehu of sacred literature, and the Ham Monk of Rocky Mountain fame. Horace Bohon writes that he will spend the holidays in California instead of with homefolks. Henry McKinney has rented the Stanley farm and will take possession when he completes building. Sam McKinney has gone to Florida and Cuba sightseeing, if not intending to transplant a senorita.

In Praise of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

There is no other medicine manufactured that has received so much praise and so many expressions of gratitude as Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is effective, and prompt relief follows its use. Grateful parents everywhere do not hesitate to testify to its merits for the benefit of others. It is a certain cure for croup and will prevent the attack if given at the first appearance of the disease. It is especially adapted to children as it is pleasant to take and contains nothing injurious. Mr. E. A. Humphreys, a well known resident and clerk in the store of Mr. E. Lock, of Alice, Cape Colony, South Africa, says: "I have used Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to ward off croup and colds in my family. I found it to be very satisfactory and it gives me pleasure to recommend it." For sale by Stanford Drug Co.

Two workmen were killed and another fatally injured when a steel smokestack, in process of erection at Saginaw, Mich., fell after the high wind had broken a guy rope. The great stallion, Axworthy, brought $21,000 at a New York sale.

NEWS NOTES.

Rear Admiral Converse has announced a plan for the ready mobilization of the navy.

Sir Edward J. Reed, formerly chief constructor of the British navy, is dead in London.

Chicago is said to be the wickedest city in the world. This is no doubt the reason many people like to go there.

R. F. Mastin, chief of the police force, and A. B. Wilson, one of his men, engaged in a fight at Mt. Sterling.

Gen. L. Victor Baughman, one of the democratic leaders of Maryland, died suddenly at his home at Frederick of acute Bright's disease.

President Jordan, of Leland Stanford University, in a speech at Boston, declared modern life to be "strenuous, complex and democratic."

William Ford picked up a stick of dynamite near Lawrenceburg, and both of his hands were blown off. He also lost both eyes and probably will die.

Twenty-four persons were killed, 96 dangerously wounded and several hundred slightly injured by the explosion in the Krupp gun factory in Germany.

On Monday last the elevated and underground railroads in New York took in 1,486,777 nickels, beating all records and demonstrating the enormous traffic.

Max Koch, a Cincinnati drummer, was wounded and died by the Four Hundred of Nashville, under the impression that he was Richard Harding Davis. The prank cost him $50.

Gov. Beckham has offered a reward of $500 for the apprehension and conviction of Bert Hudson, of Owen county, who is charged with the murder of an unborn infant.

Another effort to close saloons in all Kentucky cities will be made under the existing laws regarding Sunday closing before resort is had to an extra session of the General Assembly. This was determined at a conference between the governor and a delegation of Louisville ministers. The opinion was expressed that the present laws are sufficient.

King of All Cough Medicines.

Mr. E. G. Case, a mail carrier of Canton Center, Conn., who has been in the U. S. Service for about 16 years, says: "We have tried many cough medicines for croup, but Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is king of all and one to be relied upon every time. We also find it the best remedy for coughs and colds, giving certain results and leaving no bad after effects." For sale by Stanford Drug Co.

HUSTONVILLE.

Prof. McVey will lead the prayer meeting on Wednesday evening.

Rev. S. B. Lander's sermon at the Christian church Thanksgiving was an able effort and deserved the many complimentary mentions made of it by the large audience.

Marshal Lair's Siberian bloodhounds were taken to Mt. Salem last week, where they told the tale of "who got dem chickens." Taking a cold trail, they followed it over a mile to a cabin, where a sack of wet chicken feathers was found.

There is no denying the truth of the old saying that "the end of the road is best on which the overseer lives." This is in evidence on the road supervised by Mr. McWhorter, where same with a few hours' work could be prevented from stopping the rural route.

The C. W. B. M. of the Christian church will meet with Mrs. T. J. Robinson Thursday afternoon at 2:30. This organization will celebrate C. W. B. M. day next Sunday. All are invited to attend and learn the good it is doing. A free will offering will be taken up for the benefit of mountain schools.

On Dec. 28th Mr. Harry Frye, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arch Frye, will attain his majority and the occasion will be celebrated at his home by a social function. He will be presented by his father with a handsome gold watch, the fulfillment of a promise made to Harry 15 years ago in case he would not use tobacco nor drink whisky, both of which have been sacredly kept.

The hop Friday evening was one of the most enjoyable given here for many years and the Ladies' Aid Society realized $60 from their elegant supper. The music was enchanting. Among those from a distance were: Misses Frances Cooper, Mary D. Kennedy, Sara Dunn, Mary Burch, Sallie Taylor Woods, Lula and Lottie Kitchen, Myrtle O'Bannon, Levisa Harris and Messrs. Robert T. Bruce, Joe Lynn and Robert Coffey, Winfred Portman, James Newland, Fred Cook, Hubert Carpenter, J. M. Alverson, John Menefee, James Williams and Dr. Tyler.

Miss Nettie Richards, of Danville, was the guest of Miss Oda Burton. Rev. G. W. Mills and family left Thursday for Madisonville, Ohio, where he has accepted a call to the pastorate of the Christian church. J. H. Shamberger, of Gallatin, Tenn., chief promoter of our proposed electric road, has just returned from Philadelphia, where he presented to a big company looking for a good investment, the surveys of and business tributary to our proposed route from Stanford via Hustonville and Liberty to Scottsville. The committee was very favorably impressed with the showing made by Mr. Shamberger and as soon as practicable will put a large force to work on the Spradlin survey. Judge Boyle Stone and P. W. Whipp, of Liberty, spent two days here last week.

M. F. NORTH

Is a candidate for Representative of Lincoln county, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

J. T. ROBERTS

Is a candidate for Magistrate in the Crab Orchard Magisterial District, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

SAMUEL SPENCER, president of the Southern Railway, and one of the greatest railway magnates in the United States, was killed in a rear-end collision near Lynchburg, Va. His private car was burned and President Spencer's remains were charred beyond recognition. With Mr. Spencer were three friends from the East who were accompanying him on a hunt and they too were killed. His private secretary and several others also met death. The trouble was with the operator at Mangoon, who let two trains on the block at the same time. He disappeared immediately after the crash. Mr. Spencer was a Georgian by birth and a graduate of both the Georgia and Virginia Universities. He spent most of his life in the railroad business and was a success in every one of the many places he filled. The burial occurred at Washington Sunday and many notables were present. Out of respect for him every part of the business of the entire system was suspended for the first five minutes of his funeral. Mr. Spencer was a great man in his line and he will be sadly missed in railroad circles.

THE tariff protected trusts having increased the cost of living nearly 50 per cent., for which the Republican leaders are responsible by standing pat, the voters at the late election gave the G. O. P. a jolt just to remind it that patience was ceasing to be a virtue. Two or three corporations, closely allied with the Republican party, therefore gave notice that the wages of their employees will be raised ten per cent. and their organ, the Pittsburgh Gazette-Times, boasts: "The very first thing that triumphant Republicanism does is to raise wages all around." This open confession that "triumphant Republicanism" is closely allied with the trusts and corporations, should be kept in mind by those who only get 10 per cent. to pay 50 per cent. increase on what they have to spend and prepare to make the next jolt they administer to the party of trusts and special privileges much harder so as to force the corporations to make a fair divide of their protected profits.

ENGLISHMEN act while we talk a great deal about trusts. When a soap trust was formed there the whole nation abandoned the use of soaps made by the combining companies. Retailers had to announce that they did not deal in Trust soaps or lose their trade. The combine found itself unable to sell its wares, and it has dissolved. If Americans hated trusts as much as they pretend to they would buy no Trust-made goods, and the combinations would dissolve or go into bankruptcy. Not one of them is a complete monopoly. Every one has rivals. But it is characteristic of Americans to swear at Trusts and make not the least effort to patronize the independent concerns.

APPARENTLY ex-Senator Burton, of Kansas, now serving a jail sentence at Ironton, Mo., regards himself as out of politics for good. His friends announce that he is writing a book in which he will "expose" President Roosevelt and other public men who have been in "conspiracy" against him. If he is not out of politics for good the Republican party in Kansas will show that it is very short of material.

A NEW army order requires that applicants for enlistment in the Government service "must have at least four serviceable double (bicuspids or molar) teeth, two above and two below so opposed as to serve the purpose of mastication." The army man must be fully equipped to deal with the army rations. Hard tack and Cincinnati chicken are tough on the molars.

A PRESBYTERIAN preacher is on trial at Newark, Ohio, for peeping through windows at women disrobing to retire and lying about it when caught dead to rights. A coat of tar and feathers would make suitable attire for so infamous a clerical cuss.

A CINCINNATI church has decided to pay the pastor's wife a salary for what she has to go through with. She is entitled to more pay than her husband. Being a preacher's wife is no small job.

A MUMFORDVILLE man dropped dead while chopping wood for his wife. Let the good women take warning and not compel their "hubbies" to do such strenuous work.

POLITICAL.

Judge Moss fined the saloon keepers of Corbin for keeping open on a regular school election day.

The members-elect of the Hawaiian Legislature will ask the United States to raise their pay to $1,000 a session.

John D. Rockefeller gave only $200 to the Hughes campaign fund; but then John is trying to put something by for a rainy day.

Representatives from over 30 States will meet at Des Moines, Ia., Wednesday to discuss the question of electing United States Senators by popular vote. The Yerkes-Ernest rule, so far as post-office appointments in the Third and Tenth Kentucky districts are concerned, has been ended by a recent order of the postmaster general.

Two full-blooded Indians are candidates for United States Senator in Oklahoma and there is a probability that one of them will be elected. They are said to be fine orators and men of ability.

"I am for Bryan as against any other man in the Democratic party," said Ollie James in an interview at Washington. Same here. He is the only democrat who can win and we want to vote for a winner once.

As Republican candidates for Congress were defeated by the Democrats, besides those, like Gen. Grosvenor, who were refused renominations of their party, President Roosevelt will have a big flock of lame ducks to provide for.

The president announced the appointment of John A. McIlhenny, of Louisiana, to fill the vacancy on the Civil Service Commission caused by the promotion of A. W. Cooley to be assistant attorney general of the department of justice. Mr. McIlhenny was a member of the regiment of Rough Riders of which President Roosevelt was colonel during the Spanish war. He is a democrat.

A recount of the vote cast in the Governor's race in the recent Democratic primary, in preparing to publish the result of the primary, increases the total vote of Judge J. W. Hager by 1,000 votes, and increases his majority over Gen. Hays from 30,881 to 31,881. According to this tabulation, Judge Hager received 87,115 votes instead of 86,115, giving him a total of three votes less than were cast for the Hon. South Trimble, who received the greatest number of votes of any candidate before the primary.

IN NEIGHBORING COUNTIES.

R. Y. McElroy, Sr., one of Lebanon's oldest and best citizens, is dead.

Miss Bessie Ray, daughter of Simeon Ray, of Stone, Garrard county, is dead.

Fred Stuart shot and killed his rival, Jas. Higgins, at a mining station near Jellico.

Deputy Sheriff Davenport, of Mercer county, got his hand mashed in a corn shredder.

Mrs. M. S. Fife, a prominent member of the U. D. C. Society of Mercer county, is dead.

For the first time in years there is not a single murder case on the docket of the Knox circuit court.

Judge Moss sentenced to the penitentiary 16 persons who had been convicted in the Whitley circuit court.

Miss Nora Brassfield, of Burnside, was struck by a train and killed while attempting to cross the track at Chattanooga.

The situation in the Kentucky oil fields is lethargic. The most important developments of the past week were in Wayne county.

The $10,000 granite and bronze fountain presented to Richmond by Governor D. R. Francis, of Missouri, will be formally unveiled on Saturday Dec. 8, at 10 A. M.

In a fight at Mitchellsburg, Jerry Matherly, a young man about 25 years of age, received a bullet wound in the breast and side from the pistol of William Gillispie.

Miss Addie Bridwell, 16 years old, was killed by falling from the new county bridge across Salt river, almost in Shepherdsville, while leaning over the railing daring companions to go further than she.

The W. C. T. U. settlement school building in Hindman, Knott county, has again been destroyed by fire, entailing a loss of about $10,000. The building was completed only recently, having been used as a school only a few months.

Outwits The Surgeon.

A complication of female troubles, with catarrh of the stomach and bowels, had reduced Mrs. Thos. S. Austin, of Leavenworth, Ind., to such a deplorable condition, that her doctor advised an operation; but her husband fearing fatal results, postponed this to try Electric Bitters; and to the amazement of all who knew her, this medicine completely cured her. Guaranteed cure for torpid liver, kidney disease, biliousness, jaundice, chills and fever, general debility, nervousness, and blood poisoning. Best tonic made. Price 50c at Penny's Drug Store and Lyne Bros. Try it.

Reports from Hindman tell of the heroic work of girl students at the W. C. T. U. settlement school there, who, in their night clothes, saved their dormitory from destruction when one of the other buildings burned last week.

Long Tennessee Fight.

For 20 years W. L. Rawls, of Bells, Tenn., fought nasal catarrh. He writes: "The swelling and soreness inside my nose was fearful, till I began applying Bucklen's Arnica Salve to the sore surface; this caused the soreness and swelling to disappear, never to return." Best salve in existence. 25c at Penny's Drug Store and Lyne Bros.

At Elizabethtown the sheriff sold at public outcry a white man who had been found guilty of vagrancy. The jury declared he was perfectly able to work but was too lazy and had no visible means of support. If the authorities in this county would open their eyes a little they would find several jobs for Sheriff Hill similar to the one at Elizabethtown. There are many vagrants in this community and they are by no means confined to the Negro race.

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL is almost half filled with farms advertised for sale. The farmers of Wayne county are prosperous and very few farms for sale, but if farming is so profitable in the bluegrass we may all want to sell and go where hemp and tobacco grows so that in a very few years we will have all we want and retire.—Wayne County Outlook. Farming is profitable when properly looked after, and judging from the large number of Wayne county people who have bought farms in this county and are prospering, the land is as good as can be found.

THE banquet given by Mrs. Woodie S. Jones at her restaurant Thursday night to some 30 couples of her young friends was a thing of beauty and a joy while it lasted. The dining room had been artistically decorated with bunting, evergreen, flowers, etc., and when the doors were thrown open at 9:30 the guests walked in to the sweet strains of the Stanford colored orchestra. Formality was set aside and for more than an hour the fat of the land was enjoyed. The menu was as follows: Oysters, raw, pickles, crackers, for the first course. The second consisted of turkey, ham, solads, croquettes, olives, sandwiches. The third neapolitan ice cream and cake and the fourth and last coffee and wafers. The service was first class. It was Mrs. Jones' intention to have Hon. Harvey Helm to act as toastmaster but the Congressman-elect was too bashful to do so. At the finish of the feast of good things County Attorney W. S. Burch made an appropriate talk and expressed his appreciation, as well as that of the other 60-odd guests, of Mrs. Jones' cleverness, to which all of the young people said amen. It was a most happy and enjoyable occasion and Mrs. Jones rendered her self even more popular with the young people by her gracious deed.
